VOL. CXXXVII.—No. 145. ALEXANDRIA, VIRGINIA, SATURDAY, JUNE 18, 1921. PRICE TWO CENTS

PLANS TO SELL BONDS OF ALLIES HERE

Administration Will Ask Congress For Legislation For Funding Program

DEBT PROBLEM

Offering of Accrued Interest as Premium is Suggested—High Points of Situation.

Washington, June 18.—President Harding will ask Congress to give the Secretary of the Treasury additional authority for a settlement of the loans made to foreign governments with the ultimate view of re funding the outstanding obligations and of offering them to the American public.

Definite announcement to this effect was made at the White House yesterday afternoon following a meeting of the Cabinet, which devoted the larger part of its time to the question of dealing with the foreign loan and of popularizing it among American investors.

It has been discovered by Secretary Mellon in his study of the loan problem that he is handicapped in his effort to work out a refunding program by the provisions of the various Liberty Loan acts under which authority was given this Government to establish credits for the benefit of the Allied powers.

It is not at all clear to the Secretary how far he may go, for example, in remitting the interest which remains unpaid upon foreign obligations, or how he may possibly adjust this matter by adding the unpaid interest to the principal of the loan, or how far the Government may properly go in offering foreign securities to the American people.

These difficulties were brought to the attention of the President and the Cabinet yesterday and, after they were carefully reviewed, it was decided that the President should ask of Congress legislation which will untie the hands of the Administration regarding the loans. The exact provisions of the proposed law will be worked out by Mr. Mellon and members of the Ways and Means Committee of Congress and the legislation may be ready for considera tion within the next two or three weeks.

Meanwhile the most interesting phase of the matter perhaps is the definite announcement on the part of the Administration that as soon as Congress has given it the necessary authority it will ask the people of the country to absorb as many of the foreign obligations held by this government as the money market may be able to assimilate without detriment of other interests.

President Harding gave an intimation of his policy in this respect in a recent speech delivered in New York in which he said that he hoped that the time was not far distant when the Government could put the obligations of the Allied powers with easy reach of the American investor.

Since that time financial interests particularly have been awaiting a more definite annoucement from the White House or the Treasury Department as to its purposes and its method of procedure. Delay in making this announcement has been caused to some extent by the study which Secretary Mellon has been giving the whole problem and the difficulties he has encountered, under existing law, of presenting a workable plan of action to the President. Yesterday it was found necessary to ask for further legislation. This means, of course, still further delay in the processes of adjusting the foreign loans and of so refunding them that they be available to investors. Unless Congress acts with unaccustomed speed it will be late fall or early winter before the Administration's program is fully evolved. Meanwhile the high points of it are:

The passage of legislation which will empower the Treasury Department to adjust with foreign governments all details of their obligations to the United States, including the disposition of interest now accrued and the rate of interest which is to be paid in the future.

Conferences with fiscal representatives of foreign governments to work out a refunding of the existing demand notes and their conversion in to long term bonds. This will involve the payment of accrued interest, of course, the rate of interest on the new bonds and the time of maturity of such securities.

Once the bonds have been issued they will bear a Government guarantee and the investing public will be asked to buy them, the money received to be used to take up American obligations.

There will probably be no campaign of the Liberty Loan variety in the Government's effort to sell foreign bonds. They merely will be offered with a guarantee as to their security and with such inducements to the investor as Secretary Mellon may be able to work out after Congress has acted.

One inducement, it was suggested yesterday, would be the offer of the accrued interest on the foreign bonds as a sort of premium to the investor It is realized that the people will not feel inclined to absorb any great issue of foreign bonds with a low interest rate unless some premium is placed upon them.

HOUSE PACKER BILL PASSED BY SENATE

Measure is Adopted by 45-21 Vote After Being Amended

GOES TO LOWER BODY

Called Teeth of Measure—Against Manipulation of Prices and Deceptive Practices

Washington, June 18.—The long fight in Congress over legislation to regulate the packing industry was virtually ended today through adoption by the Senate, 45 to 21, of the regulatory bill recently passed by the House. Several amendments by the Senate necessitate return of the bill to the House, which probably will order it sent to conference.

Passage of the House bill came after seven days of continuous and heated debate and after the Senate had voted down the bill reported by its Agriculture Committee and a measure offered by Senator Sterling, Republican, South Dakota. The House bill as passed provides for regulation of the meat packers of the country by the Secretary of Agriculture. The Agriculture Committee bill, which provided for regulation by a live stock commissioner, was rejected 37 to 34 yesterday and toady was defeated again 34 to 31. The Sterling bill, with provisions similar to the committee measure except for regulation by the Federal Trade Commission, went down to defeat, 33 to 31.

The House bill on the final roll call was supported by 27 Republicans and 18 Democrats and opposed by 15 Republicans and six Democrats. Senator Weller, of Maryland, was among those opposing the bill. The roll call follows:

Republicans—Borah. Bursum, Capper, Cummings, Curtis, Ernst, Frelinghuysen, Gooding, Harreld, Johnson, Jones (Washington), Kenyon- La Follette, Lenroot, Lodge, McCormick, McCumber, McNarry, Nelson, Nicholson, Norris, Oddie, Poindexter, Shortridge, Spencer, Sterling and Sutherland—27.

Democrats—Ashurst, Caraway, Gerry, Glass, Harris, Heflin, Jones (New Mexico), Kendrick, Myers, Overman, Owen, Pitiman, Sheppard, Swanson, Trammel, Walsh, Massachusetts, Walsh Montana, and Watson Georgia, —18.

Total, 45.

Republicans—Brandegee, Cameron, Dillingham, Edge, Fernald, Keyes, Knox, McLean, New, Phipps, Smoot, Wadsworth, Warren, Watson, Indiana, and Weller—15.

Democrats—Broussard, Dial, King, Stanley, Underwood and Williams—6.

Total, 21.

The more important amendments made by the Senate included one by Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, requiring packers and stockyard operators to keep such records and statements of account as the Secretary of Agriculture may require and authorizing the Secretary to prescribe uniform methods of accounting and to examine business methods. Incertion of this amendment was described by packer regulation forces as having "put teeth in the House bill." Another amendment adopted is designed to remove the small butcher from the regulation.

The bill as passed forbids the packers to engage in unfair or deceptive devices or pracitces, to apportion the supply by interdealing, to restrain commerce or create monopoly, or to manipulate prices by interdealing. It also prohibts stockyard operators from charging unreasonabel rates or engaging in deceptive practices.

The House bill during the debate in the Senate generally was described as less drastic than the Agriculture Committee measure, and Senator La Follette, Republican, Wisconsin, charged that it had been written in part by the packers. The Wisconsin Senator voted for the House bill on the final roll call and later explained that the Kenyon and other amendments had made it more acceptable.

Prepare For Camp

A. L. I. To Go To Camp Meade For 15 Days Beginning July 10

The Alexandria Light Infantry has received orders for the summer encampment, which will be held at Camp Meade, Md., for fifteen days beginning July 10. The company, which is now completely equipped as a machine gun company, will leave Alexandria Sunday morning, July 10, on a special troop train, arriving at camp during the afternoon and will begin training Monday morning. The officers and sergeants who attended the camp of instruction last week are enthusiastic over the prospects. The work, while intensive, will not be hard, as it will consist principally of lectures, demonstrations of the machine guns, and firing on the thousand inch range, but no long, tiresome "hikes," and no night work.

From now until the date for the encampment, the company will hold drills twice a week, Monday and Friday nights, so that the men may familiarize themselves with the machine guns. A number of men whose enlistments expire during June are expected to re-enlist for the camp, and new applications for enlistment are being received at every drill.

In addition to the four Browning machine guns the men are armed with Colt automatic pistols, and will engage in target practice with these during the encampment. A team from the Virginia National Guard will be formed this summer to compete at the national target shoot to be held at Camp Perry this fall, and the members of the A. L. I., are eligible to compete for this team. Any good pistol shots developed during the July encampment will receive every encouragement to practice and try for the team.

Attendance Increases

Sunday School of M. E. South Jumps From Third to First Place

From 1686 to 1800 was the jump in the Sunday School attendance in Alexandria last Sunday and from third to first place was the good fortune of the M. E. Church South which jumped from an attendance of 487 to 675. It was childrens' day at the M. E. South and this probably helped to boost the attendance but this school has an enrollment of over a thousand and the attendance was well within their possibilities.

Other schools also enjoyed a shift in position—some for better and some for worse. The Second Baptist dropped from first to second place, the First Baptist from second to third place while the Second Presbyterians took the cellar position. The M. E. South and St. Paul's had the good fortune to take first and fifth positions respectively. It is said that a large class of young men has been recently organized at St. Paul's. This together with a most progressive rector in the person of the Rev. Percy Foster Hall, who has just come to the parish seems to be responsible for the school's increase.

TODAY'S THOUGHT. There is no man so good, who, were he to submit all his thoughts and actions to the laws, would not deserve hanging ten times in his life.
Montaigne.

City Government in Virginia

The following cities have adopted the city manager plan in Virginia: Blackstone, Bristol, Hampton, Lynchburg, Newport News, Norfolk, Petersburg, Portsmouth, Radford, Roanoke, Staunton, and Suffolk. We hope that Alexandria will be included in the list before the snow flies again!

Our own state of Virginia, our sister city of Staunton, will go down in history as the birthplace of the city manager plan of municipal government. In 1908 the mayor and city council of Staunton, becoming disgusted over the inefficiency of government by council committees, hired Mr. C. E. Ashburner, and passed an ordinance delegating to him all administrative detail and responsibility, giving him the title of "general manager." He made good and the city became famous for its novel plan of municipal administration. Since that time, however, Staunton has changed from its make-shift ordinance arrangement to the present well-known city manager plan.

In 1920, Dubuque, Iowa adopted the city manager idea, and elected on its first council, a banker, a manufacturer and a physician. Labor led the fight, feeling that its representatives would not become silk-shirted job-holders at the City Hall, but would remain working men among their fellows; since members of the council give only the time needed for weekly meetings, and continue in their regular vocations. This same fact was an inducement to the banker, the lumberman, the manufacturer and the physician to serve likewise. The council hired as its city manager the former expert manager of Springfield, Ohio, who had had some years of experience in other cities. They started him at a salary of $8,400 per year, and within the first ten days he saved the city $20,000 by eliminating needless jobs held by political henchmen.

And so it goes! One of our leading citizens has but recently returned from Norfolk and Lynchburg, and he reports the citizens in both places as enthusiastic over their city manager and the efficiency and economy of their administrations. Norfolk is especially a most admirable example. Although it had doubled its population suddenly during the war, yet the new government, dating from September, 1918, reduced its inherited deficit by two million dollars, had added $1,500,000 of public improvements, made the police and fire departments the best paid in the country, established a juvenile court, employed visiting nurses, opened free medical and dental clinics, and established a city hospital. Through co-operation between the city-planning commission and the citizens, a street extension project which would ordinarily have cost the city $250,000, was completed for less than $25,000! A 50-acre water frontage worth $750,000 was acquired for $250,000. Fourteen new playrounds were opened and recreation developed for adults; a municipal tennis tournament, for instance! Infant mortality was radically reduced.

What Norfolk has accomplished Alexandria can achieve in proportion. We are emphatic in the assertion that with the City Manager form of government, the real Alexandria will awaken, and the Greater Alexandria come into a splendid renascence!

Votes of Women Voters.

The Virginia League of Women Voters at a recent meeting decided unanimously to invite through the columns of the Gazette the candidates for the several municipal offices to come before the league at its next meeting and give their views on matters pertaining to their candidacy. This is certainly a move in the right direction. Unless we are mistaken, whether the candidates appear or not, the women of this city will vote intelligently at the primary on August 2d. Women are more conscientious than men, and their addition to the electorate is bound to have its effect in purifying and elevating what is called politics!

We think it entirely fit and proper that the candidates for municipal office in Alexandria heed this invitation and govern themselves accordingly.

LAUDS CAPT. JORDAN
(Communicated)

Born in Winchester, Virginia, on February 18, 1891, Capt. E. W. Jordan, candidate for the legislature from this district, has crowded into his thirty years such varied activity as to stamp him "a man of parts" and commend him to those who like action.

His father, Hon. E. C. Jordan, was for many years proprietor of Jordan White Sulphur Springs, near Winchester, which was used by the Confederate Army as a hospital also served several terms in the Virginia legislature and for some years was a leading spirit in the House of Delegates. So, it can be said of the candidate of today that he "comes by his political aspirations honestly."

Capt. Jordan, more familiarly known to his host of friends and political supporters as "Tim," spent his boyhood days around Winchester and later lived on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, to which section his family subsequently removed, and after completing the public school course, attended Kiski College.

No young Virginian has a cleaner or more commendable war record than Capt. Jordan, who won his promotion to Captain on the crimson Argonne Forest battlefield. He volunteered his services in April 14th, 1917, and was sent to the First Officers' Training Camp at Ft. Niagara, New York, from where he was graduated a First Lieutenant. He trained troops from the District of Columbia and went overseas with the 312th Machine Gun Battalion of the 78th Division. After the Armistice he was appointed Division Athletic Officer, directing the athletic activities of 25,000 men.

After serving a year overseas he returned home and his battalion was demobilized June 6th, 1919. Captain Jordan accepted the position of assistant business manager of Washington baseball club and resumed his residence in his native state a few days after leaving the military services.

Because of his enterprise, initiative, qualities of leadership, sustained enthusiasm and capacity for hard work, Captain Jordan has been repeatedly called upon to accept offices of dignity, trust, confidence and responsibility. At present he is not only president of the Clarendon Athletic Association and member of several committees, but he is also commander of the 312th Machine Gun Battalion Post of the American Legion as well as assistant business manager of the Washington baseball club. He is unafraid to take the initiative in any righteous cause and his whole being becomes galvanized with that enthusiasm. He is a live wire, a man of deeds—not words.

Clyde C. Lamond.

IDLE HOUR

When Ralph Ince decided to play the leading role of Constable Bob Holliday in the new National Picture, "Out of the Snows," which comes to the Idle Hour today, he was confroted with the difficulty of obtaining a correct uniform for the part. As a member of the Northwest Mounted Police he needed a special uniform, and for the sake of the picture it had to be a true duplicate of the uniforms worn by the members of the mounted police.

From Thomas McGrand, who was a corporal in the R. N. W. M. P. during the rebellion of '85 in Canada, and from Colonel Wm. Donaldson, official with the Canadian Northwest Pacific, he obtained some photographs of the uniform, and the two men described the coloring to him.

Mr. Ince had the costume completed and submitted it to these two gentlemen for inspection. After close examination they both said they believed he could pass without difficulty as a sworn member of the famous R. N. W. M. P.

The story of "Out of the Snows," is set in the romantic period of the latter eighties, after the Rebellion, and has to do with the great work of the mounted police in restoring law and order to the restless and lawless elements on the edges of civilization in Canada.

IT TAKES 160 YEARS FOR THE LIGHT TO TRAVEL TO THE EARTH FROM BETELGUESE

There can be no doubt that the diameter of Betelguese exceeds 160,000,000 miles, and it is probably much greater.

The extremely small angle subtended by this enormous disk is explained by the great distance of the star, which is about 160 light years. That is to say, light traveling at the rate of 186,000 miles per second spends 160 years in crossing the space that lies between us and Betelguese, whose tremendous proportions therefore seem so minute in the most powerful telescopes.

This actual measure of the diameter of Betelguese supplies a new and striking test of Russell's and Hertzsprung's theory of dwarf and giant stars. Just before the war Russell showed that our old methods of classifying the stars according to their spectra must be radically changed. Stars in an early stage of their life history must be regarded as diffuse gaseous masses, enormously larger than our sun, and at a much lower temperature. Their destiny must be very low, and their state that of a perfect gas. These are the "giants." In the slow process of time they contract through constant loss of heat by radiation. But despite this loss, the heat produced by contraction causes their temperature to rise, while their color changes from red to bluish white. This process of shrinkage and rise of temperature goes on so long as they remain in the state of a perfect gas. But as soon as contraction has increased the density of the gas beyond a certain point the cycle reverses and the temperature begins to fall. The bluish white light of the star turns yellowish, and we enter the dwarf stage, of which our sun is a representative.

Men, It's Time to Think OF COMFORT

The "Le Temps" finely made in white nubuck with tan calf trimmings at $8.50

THERE'S more than just "class" in the new Sport Shoes.

There's the fact you've a chance to give your feet a "breathing spell."

The coolness and comfort of a Sport Shoe is going to keep you at ease and feeling fit whether you're "teeing off" or just lazying around.

You really ought to have the model pictured this summer. It's smart enough for any company. And if you've been a "stickler for conservatism in footwear just remember the downright practical side of foot freshness and freedom of action that you'll get in a canvas or buckskin Oxford when the sun is hot enough to "broil."

Here's hoping you'll take advantage of our efforts to keep you cool and comfortable this summer.

THE TEST THAT TELLS

Is the Test of ime. Many Alexandria People Have Made This Test

Years ago this Alexandria citizen told in a public statement, the benefit derived from Doan's Kidney Pills. The statement is now confirmed—the testimony complete. Instances like this are numerous. They doubly prove the merit of Doan's Kidney Pills. Can any Alexandria reader demand more convincing proof? It's Alexandria testimony—it may be investigated.

Mrs. Milton Moor, 123 Duke St., gave the following statement on April 13, 1915: "Doan's Kidney Pills are one of our household remedies. I have used Doan's several times when I have had backache and general kidney disorder with very good results. I always recommend anything I know is good and I am sure Doan's are a fine remedy."

On March 14, 1919, Mrs. Moor added: "I praise Doan's Kidney Pills just the same as ever, for they have always been just as represented. If I have the least backache a few of Doan's are sure to give me relief."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Moor had Foster-Milburn Co.,

IN BED EIGHT MONTHS

Cause—Change of Life. How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Got Me Up

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During the Change of Life I was in bed for eight months and had two good doctors treating me but they did me no good. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. I had all kinds of bad spells, but they all left me. Now when I feel weak and nervous I take the Vegetable Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during the Change of Life for I know it will do them good. If you think it will induce some one to try the Vegetable Compound you may publish this letter."—Mrs. A. KELLER, Afton, Tennessee.

Women from forty-five to fifty years of age should take warning from such symptoms as heat flashes, palpitation of the heart, smothering or fainting spells, or spots before the eyes, and prepare their system for this perfectly natural change by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It has helped many, many women through this trying period, just as it did Mrs Keller.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of my dear son, JAMES S. JEFFRIES, who died two years ago today, June 18, 1919.

Every day brings back sweet memories,
Every memory brings a tear,
Deep so deep within my heart I cherish
Thoughts of you I loved so dear.
Left with strong yearning and passionate pain,
Long I tonight for your presence again,
Tired of the hollow, the false and untrue,
James, how my heart yearns just for you.

SPORTS

Everything is all set for tomorrow's big game between the Dreadnaughts and the Rex. This game will practically decide who will be in position to claim the honors for the best base ball club in this vicinity, as the Rex have defeated the big three already this year, namely the Knicks, Clarendon and Silver Springs. Any team that can defeat these three teams by the middle of June is in a class by themselves and the D's figure they are stacking up against the best base ball club in this section, bar none. However they have confidence both in their team and their supporters and with the average breaks of the game expect to win. Come early if you want a good seat as every indication points to the largest crowd that has ever attended a ball game in this city. Extra seating accommodations will be made and the field will be properly attended to in regards to the overflow which assure all of being able to enjoy this game.

The 1st Baptist S. S. baseball team forfeited the game scheduled yesterday to the Second Baptist S. S. base ball team by the score of 9 to 0. The manager of the 1st Baptist had his team there but refused to put them on the field, we are yet at a loss to understand the reason for such action. Rather than disappoint the crowd that was present manager Bender of the Second Baptist S. S. made arrangements to play a team composed of players from the following teams: 1st Baptist and M. E. South. S. S., the Triple A's and Dreadnaughts. This team defeated the Second Baptist team by the score of 2 to 0. Smoot pitching for the losers struck out 13 men allowed only 2 hits in 5 innings while Kendrick pitching for the winners, allowed 1 hit struck out 8 and hit 1 batter.

Chief Goods of the Alexandria Police force umpired the game and kept the crowd in a good humor during the game.

On Monday, June 20 the Second Baptist team will play the M. E. South team on Baggett's Field at 5.30 p. m. This is the play off of the tie game between these two teams on June 1st.

VIRGINIA NEWS

Strasburg,—It has been long known to geologists that the mountains and hills of Shenandoah county are rich in mineral deposits. Particularly is this true of the Fort Valley, in the eastern part of Shenandoah county, and the Cedar Creek, valley on its western edge. Over 60 years ago a shaft was sunk on this property, and for a time mining operations were carried on; but the flooding of the mine compelled its abandonment and for years no effort was made to further develop the prospect. Experts who have looked over the property find that it will be possible to develop the mine and make it a paying proposition, as the ore assays a high percentage of the two metals indicated. Samples of the ore were brought to Woodstock and are on exhibition in the county clerk's office.

Richmond—Synopsis of crop conditions in Virginia for the week ending June 14: Wheat shows some improvement and is ripening; heads are geenrally well filled, but are short in many fields, there was further local damage by rust and the crop is below the aevrage. Corn has improved and is generally clean and well cultivated. Condition and progress of tobacco is fair in western and poor in eastern counties. Resetting sweet potato plants continues. Plants are much in need of rain in most sections. Truck and white potatoes are doing fairly well, but are also now in heed of more moisture. Meadows and pastures are somewhat short. There is prospect of an abundant crop of blackberries. Other fruits are scarce.

Richmond—William R. Shands, son of former State Seantor William H. Shands, of Southampton county, on Wednesday was appointed assitant counsel in the securities division of the state corporation commission, effective July 1. Mr. Shands will have active charge of the regulations governing the the sale of securities.

Lynchburg,—Tucked away in an envelope and placed there in 1876 by the late Thomas J. Kirkpatrick, several Virginia bonds antedating that time, have been found in the law office of Kirkpatrick, Howard and Burks here, and inquiry at Richmond has disclosed that the West Virginia debt settlement has given one of the bonds a value of $1,600. Others in the batch bring their value up to about $2,000.

Richmond,—Five thousand dollars has been apportioned by the State Board of Health to fight malaria carrying mosquitoes in Virginia this summer, it was announced yesterday F. C. Harper, of Smithfield, has been placed in charge of malaria prevention work and will be assisted by two expert from Norfolk. He will open his headquarters at Smith field.

TRAINING CAMP FOR YOUNG MEN

TO BE OPENED AT CAMP MEADE, MARYLAND, ON AUGUST 1ST.

NO CHARGES WILL BE MADE

Splendid Opportunity For The Youth Of The State To Secure Valuable And Healthy Experience.

A free summer camp, with all expenses included, railroad fare paid, is offered this summer by the government to 1,200 young men between the ages of 16 and 35 who reside in Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia and the District of Columbia. This Citizens' Military Training Camp will last for thirty days, commencing on August 1st, and will be held at Camp Meade, Maryland, about half way between Baltimore and Washington.

Attendance at the camp will not cost one cent to any of the candidates who are selected to go. They may either pay their railroad fare from their homes to Camp Meade and be reimbursed as soon as they arrive at the rate of five cents for each mile traveled, allowing an ample margin for meals and other expenses en route, or if they prefer they will be furnished with a ticket before they leave home and allowed not to exceed $3.00 a day for their meals while traveling.

Upon arriving at Camp Meade each man will be supplied with a complete set of uniforms and equipment. He will then be assigned to quarters in comfortable permanent barracks. When mess call sounds he will find a well-cooked meal all ready for him paid for by the government and prepared by army cooks who are now going through a special course of training at the Camp Meade Cooks' and Bakers' School to prepare them for duty at the camp. All the mess attendants will be supplied from Regular Army regiments stationed at Camp Meade. Should he have need of it at any time he will find a well-equipped hospital free of charge with competent army surgeons and dentists.

In return for this he will be called upon to devote his mornings to military drills and exercises under the direction of officers specially selected from the Infantry School at Camp Benning, Georgia for duty as instructors, and will be encouraged to spend his afternoons in athletics and games under the supervision of officers specially trained to supervise such activities.

While he will live in permanent barracks, he will frequently take short hikes through the beautiful rolling and wooded country of Southern Maryland, carrying the infantry soldier's field equipment and ending the march by going into camp and spending the night under canvas if the weather is good. Some of his meals in the field he will cook for himself in his "mess kit" and others will be served to him from rolling kitchens.

The military part of the day's program will include demonstrations of all the modern military weapons, such as Tanks, Artillery, machine guns and trench mortars by veteran regular troops stationed at Camp Meade, as well as the actual drills in which the candidates will take part. It is hoped that they will become sufficiently interested to affiliate with the National Guard or Organized Reserve when they return to their homes, thus fitting themselves to be leaders instead of followers if they should ever be called upon to serve their country in case of another war, but attendance at the camp involves absolutely no obligation, moral or legal, to perform any further military service.

Off duty hours will be well provided for, and candidates will be encouraged to spend all their time in camp by providing them with amusements so that they will not want to leave it. There will be movies and other forms of entertainment every evening and frequent concerts by some of the fine Regular Army bands stationed at Camp Meade. The religious atmosphere will not be neglected. Two chaplains will devote their entire time to the Citizens' Camp and to the management of a service club where candidates will be entertained in their spare time. Other chaplains of six different denominations on duty with regular troops of the camp will be available for advice and counsel.

The Military Training Camps Association, composed of graduates of previous similar camps held at Plattsburg, New York, and other places, are in active charge of receipt and forwarding of applications through their nearest local representative, Colonel John A. Cutchins, Mutual Assurance Building, Richmond, but if he cannot be conveniently reached, information and application blanks can be secured and arrangements made to obtain without charge the very simple physical examination by writing to the Commanding General, Third Corps Area, Fort Howard, Maryland.

Applications should be forwarded as early as possible, as the final selection of applicants must be made well in advance of the opening of the camp on August 1st. In case the number of applicants exceeds the capacity of the camp, vacancies will be apportioned by counties in proportion to their population, and the individuals selected by a method which will insure that each locality and each individual applicant has an equal chance.

BUICK

Authorized Buick Service — Emblem of Satisfaction

The Uintah Railway terminates at Watson, Utah. Between Watson and Vernal stretches 60 miles of arid desert.

And yet the public suffers no inconvenience in traveling between these two towns, because the Uintah Railway maintains an unfailing passenger service with two Buick cars.

"The 60 mile road between Watson and Vernal is entirely unpaved, across an arid desert, with no habitation save three freight huts," writes Vice-President Robinson of the railway.

"In summer the temperature ranges as high as 110°; in winter as low as zero, with the road often covered with 12 inches of snow. The two Buicks have never been off this route—are operating there today."

Present lines of new Buick six-cylinder models will be carried thru the 1922 season. Beginning June 1st the new series and prices will be as follows, f. o. b. Factories, Flint, Michigan.
